

STYLE#SPL-009

Product Details

Wind Cone

Wind cone the body material is stainless steel material of FAA standard . the top with 4 flood light and 1 low intensity obstruction light and a wind sock. Usually, the total service life is above 3 years.

The height of total wind cone can be custom made based on different requirements.

This product is used to provide visual surface wind direction and velocity information to pilots in helicopters over the final approach and take-off areas.

According to ICAO requirement, every helipad area must have at least one wind cone. Installation position must be not interfered by around object and airflow formed by helipad wing and make sure pilot can recognize wind cone at 200 meters clearly.GS-HP/W lighting direction sign is a symbol of wind and wind direction, which can be used in the daytime and at night.

